

Press Release

Bishkek, June 1, 2013.

Discussion on the application of best practices in the area of protection of the rights of labor migrants in Kyrgyzstan

On June 3-4, 2013, the Tian Shan Policy Center (TSPC) at the American University of Central Asia, together with the "Resource Centre for the Elderly" Public Association will host the International Conference on Best Practices in Protecting Labor Migrant Perspectives of their Application in Kyrgyzstan.

The Conference will bring together experts both from the Government and international organizations, educational institutions, NGOs and think tanks from Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Kazakhstan, Russia and the United States to discuss the best international practices in the field of labor migrants' rights implementation. The Conference is aimed at supporting stakeholders in their efforts to develop mechanisms for the implementation of best practices in Kyrgyzstan, and facilitating the discussion and formulation of concrete recommendations on reforming and managing migration processes in Kyrgyzstan and develop/P 4MC1h12g